DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN LIEBMAN AND MEMBERS SCHAUMBER AND PEARCE

On February 2, 2010, the two sitting members of the Board issued a Decision and Order in this proceeding, which is reported at 355 NLRB No. 10. Thereafter, the General Counsel filed an application for enforcement in the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. On June 17, 2010, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in New Process Steel, L.P. v. NLRB, 130 S.Ct. 2635, holding that under Section 3(b) of the Act, in order to exercise the delegated authority of the Board, a delegee group of at least three members must be maintained. Thereafter, the court of appeals dismissed the General Counsel's application for enforcement.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.²

The Board has considered the judge's decision and the record in light of the exceptions and briefs and has decided to affirm the judge's rulings, findings, and conclusions and to adopt the recommended Order to the extent and for the reasons stated in the decision reported at 355 NLRB No. 10 (2010), which is incorporated herein by reference.³

(SEAL) NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Chairman Liebman believes that such a remedy may be worthy of consideration in a future case. Leavenworth Times, supra at 649–651 (Member Murphy's dissent).

² Consistent with the Board's general practice in cases remanded from the courts of appeals, and for reasons of administrative economy, the panel includes the members who participated in the original decision. Furthermore, under the Board's standard procedures applicable to all cases assigned to a panel, the Board members not assigned to the panel had the opportunity to participate in the adjudication of this case at any time up to the issuance of this decision.

³ In adopting the provision in the amended remedy section of the decision, denying the General Counsel's request for an imposed bargaining schedule (355 NLRB No. 10, slip op. at 3), we rely on Leavenworth Times, 234 NLRB 649 (1978). We find it unnecessary to additionally rely on Myers Investigative & Security Services, 354 NLRB No. 51 (2009).
